The CCAR is committed to ensuring that financial hardship not be a barrier to membership. Anyone in need of dues assistance should contact the Dues Chair, Rabbi Dena Feingold, at dfeingold55@gmail.com. If you need to continue your current dues adjustment arrangement, you are welcome to do so without contacting the Dues Chair. All communication will be held in the strictest confidence.

Membership in the CCAR includes a commitment to maintain the highest ethical standards. In accordance with the requirement of Article X of the CCAR Constitution and Bylaws, please read and agree to the following by checking the boxes:

- In this past year, I have read and agree to follow the CCAR Code of Ethics (ccarnet.org/ethics).
- I have completed five hours of Continuing Rabbinic Education during the 2025–2026 dues year. If 2025–2026 was your first year as a member of the CCAR, two of the five hours must have been in the area of ethics education.

*Total Earned Income means salary and parsonage in effect July 1, 2026 – June 30, 2027.

**For CCAR dues purposes, rabbis are considered “Retired” if they are no longer employed and are not earning income from a congregation or organization. Otherwise, please apply the dues schedule to all earned income.

** Please note: Your membership in the Conference is important to us. The Constitution of the Conference provides that members who are in arrears for one year or more are subject to suspension from the Conference, with the loss of all benefits of membership, including career services, participation in the Reform Pension Board, convention attendance, and continuing education. Please help us keep you in good standing.
